RE: COMMENTS ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO CHAPTER 3, ELECTIONS

FROM: THE ELECTION BOARD

DATE: MARCH 9, 2017

The Nation's Election Board is proposing amendments to the Fort McDowell Yavapai Nation Law and Order Code Chapter 3, Elections. The purpose of the proposed amendments is to update the election laws to reflect changes in how elections are conducted since its original adoption in 1999.

Included with this letter you will find a redlined document that highlights the proposed amendments to the law. To help you better understand the proposed amendments, the Election Board is including this information:

Red lettering that is underlined stands for proposed language that will be inserted.

~~Red lettering that is struck-out~~ stands for current language that will be deleted.

Black lettering is the current language that will remain the same.

Language in red lettering has not yet been approved by the Tribal Council but may be approved as early as the summer of 2017 to go into effect for the upcoming 2018 election.

The Election Board is accepting comments on the proposed amendments until 5:00 p.m. on Monday, May 15, 2017. Please send your comments to the Election Board via email to eboard@fmyn.org or via mail to:
