

fort mcdowell

yavapai nation presents

"Wassaja"

dr. carlos montezuma day thursday, january 28, 2016

11:00am to 1:00pm

fort mcdowell parks & recreation

dr. carlos montezuma also known as "wassaja", a fort mcdowell yavapai was captured at a young age by pima indians and sold to an italian photographer by the name of carlos gentile and was relocated to chicago, illinois where he attended the university of illinois where he obtained a medical degree. he later returned to fort mcdowell to help his people in the fight for their land and water rights.

for further information please contact special events at 480.789.7162

11:00am

welcome

11:30am

video: changing is not vanishing

12:00pm

afternoon tea & light refreshments

12:30pm

family member presentation

1:00pm

closing

this is a drug & alcohol free event.
www.fmyn.org |  facebook: fort mcdowell yavapai nation